Since 1997, The Food Source mission was to be different and say yes when all others say no. Through constant growth and evolution, it's always been our priority to stay ahead of the increased awareness to food safety, labeling requirements, and trends... all while maintaining the balance necessary to serve all food manufacturers, both large and small.

Why the Food Source International?

- Non-GMO & Organic
- Grade 1 Quality & Food Safety
- Ingredients, Seasonings & Processes Crafted to Perfection
